

Book Club Contract

William James Middle School Book Club's objective is to provide an educational environment for students to receive free quality literature to read and discuss. Members have a responsibility to read the book selection by the scheduled meeting date so that we may meet and discuss the book knowledgeably. As students read the book, jot down questions and comments to bring for group discussion day. Mrs. Borck's blog is an online forum for students to use to discuss and ask questions about the book you are reading. Click on the WJMS Book Club tab at dborck.wordpress.com to find the online discussion page.

Certain rules for online and group discussion will be strictly enforced. All contributions to our discussions are valuable and everyone must be treated with respect. As with any extracurricular activity, book club is a privilege and school rules will be in effect. Courtesy, respect, responsibility and trustworthiness are required traits of all members. Schoolwork and homework are a priority, and classroom behavior will be a strong consideration in continued participation in the club. In signing the Book Club contract, you will be making the commitment to attend club meetings. Attendance at club meetings will be considered when we are distributing books to students.

I am excited to begin reading with everyone and I am looking forward to a great year of exploring some wonderful literature together.
